

GUBERNATOR

Question
MARK

WORKSHOP - Understanding governance in Church schools

Lots of Church school governors have a grasp of what they're supposed to do.

Few have a grasp of why, how and what being 'gubernator' is about anyway.

Mark has taught many audiences of Church school governors this, from national and regional stages, in a way which encourages, challenges and supports them into the future.

This two-part interactive workshop helps governors - of all kinds, including foundation governors - think clearly and strategically about their role, why it's important and how to generate positive outcomes, not only for their Church school but also for their community.

Mark's insights transform governors' understanding of their roles, and leave them clearer and happier about their potential impact.

And his 'three things that transform school governance' will change your view for ever...

Content

The role of 'gubernator'

- Standing in the gap
- The three things that transform school governance
- Why our schools are amongst the lowest-achieving in the developed world – and what governors can do about it
- How to keep develop your community through your school
- Why Church schools are a national treasure

Outcome

An understanding of what governance is actually about, and how governors of Church schools can transform their communities

Time required

2 hours

Cost

£250 plus any agreed travel and other expenses

Maximum numbers

Up to 100 people