

WORKSHOP - The RIGHT Programme

This half-day (three hour) discussion-based workshop is aimed at individual chairs of governors, or small groups of chairs (and aspiring chairs).

It draws on the insights and experience Mark has gained from more than ten years chairing all kinds of educational organisations, leading to him being one of the country's leading practitioners in strategic governance.

The RIGHT Programme will change the way you think about chairing your school's governing body, and you'll be far more strategic and effective as a result.

This is a chance to explore and learn the deep, foundational insights into being a great chair, covering not the 'what' but the 'how' and 'why'.

It takes chairs beyond the soul-destroying, endless lists of things to do, and takes them towards a much more strategic way of approaching them effectively.

There's no other workshop like it, and that's why leading dioceses and successful schools have chosen the RIGHT Programme to bring new levels of insight, understanding and performance to their chairs of governors, and also to committee chairs and aspiring chairs.

The RIGHT Programme works equally well for non-Church schools, and Mark has significant experience in customising it for a variety of contexts, including maintained schools.

Content

The RIGHT programme, from start to finish

Outcome

A new, highly-effective and practical range of insights and tools for chairs to use, to make them great chairs of governors

Time required

3 hours plus breaks

Cost

£300, plus any agreed travel and other expenses

Maximum numbers

Up to 6 chairs, or aspiring chairs (if a group, that is arranged by schools themselves, drawing on local partners to generate additional numbers)